OUR DEDICATION

The "Shield" Staff, on behalf of the student body of Robert E. Lee High School, is proud to dedicate this, our decade issue, to Col. Robbins. He has been instrumental in the publication of the "Shield" for three years as well as a teacher of Earth Science for five years.

Col. Robbins is very much a part of Lee. His familiar face can be found almost anywhere in our school. Col. Robbins can be found teaching in room 222, eating lunch with the other science teachers in room 239, working in the IBM room, helping out in the yearbook room, or walking the halls with his camera during 6th period.

As yearbook advisor, Col. Robbins has given up many nights and weekends of relaxation to produce the finest yearbook possible for our student body. We thank you, Col. Robbins.

TEN LONG YEARS

This, the tenth anniversary of Robert E. Lee High School, was the year of the Mardis Gras. The 1967-68 school year was the most colorful in Lee's history. Almost everything this year was centered around the occasion of our tenth anniversary; Homecoming, Mardis Gras week, and the spirit of the student body.

Accordingly, the "Shield" uses the tenth anniversary of Robert E. Lee High School as its theme for its decade issue. We hope that we have captured the excitement and the most memorable moments of this year.

There was something else that was extra-special this year: the student body. All of us worked hard to make this the most outstanding year in Robert E. Lee's history. We added the extra measure of enthusiasm, the extra work, and made this an extra colorful year.

Thus was the 1967-68 school year, the tenth anniversary, the year of the Mardis Gras, a year which will not soon be forgotten.

WE HOPE THAT YOU HAVE
HAD A COLORFUL TENTH ANNIVERSARY YEAR

CLASSES

OUR YEAR!

SENIOR CLASS

As freshmen we faced
Cold, cramped up Quonset huts,
A large supply of elevator passes and Directions to the swimming pool and Large seniors.

Then in our sophomore year we
Joined all the clubs not open to freshmen,
Held the traditional Sophomore Talent Show
Were victorious in the Freshmen-Sophomore Softball game.

In our third year of bedlam
The shortened school day was a blessing
We ordered class rings and chose the Raccoon as our class symbol.
We bravely faced the Seniors in traditional Competition, but lost.
Camelot found itself in our cafeteria.

As seniors we have
Braved the ordeal of College Boards,
Traveled to Annapolis in place of our
Senior Class trip,
Haunted the halls on Halloween,
Enjoyed the privilege of having our own
Class lounge,
Raised money in the Slave Auction and Proved ourselves capable of facing the Events and problems of whatever may be.
Our future.

ANNAPOLIS TRIP

The cavalcade of buses left Lee early on Saturday morning enroute to the Naval Academy. With the sound of a bell midshipmen poured out of buildings and swarmed over the campus.

The Class of '68 had arrived at Annapolis. From there on, everything was a blur of hot dogs, Navy, banners and big yellow mums. Cannons blew, teepees went up in flames, and white hats flew in the air. After a long, hot day in the bleachers the cavalcade returned, somewhat subdued, but still thinking Navy the best.

HALLOWEEN

Baby dolls, hippies, bums and horrors
Even a T.V. box and a Lyndon Johnson were running around.
Weird apparitions, alias seniors, giggled and cackled as they roamed
in the halls.
But at the last sound of the bell, they quietly faded into big yellow buses.

OUR SENIOR YEAR . . .

"Looks like our knobby-kneed president was washed up before school even started."

"The buying power of the class ring seems to be going down."

To this, the close of a "sheltered" life;
The morning bus rides, the routine schedule, the cafeteria.
To our high school dances, plays, football games,
rings . . .
To a bright new future awaiting us.
To us, to life.

"We try harder."

"Juicy's Harem"

"Bloomers and suspenders are on the rise this year."

"O.K., Becky. You do that once more and so help me . . ."

... THE END OF THE BEGINNING

"Class of '68—honesty, integrity, the symbol of purity."

"I've been framed."

"Moshos v. Cafeteria food—an endless battle."

CLASSES OF 1969

Three years ago, as freshmen, we entered,
Beginning as the underclass but
Not the underdog.
As juniors we have preserved the Traditional Junior-Senior rivalry,
Acting as slaves for losing to the Seniors in the Homecoming float
Competition,
And continuing to fight the seniors in
The basketball rivalry.
Finally, we have earned the pride of Ordering class rings and enjoying the Thrill of our Junior Prom.
With the spirit and pep needed to make
A good class,
We are surely the best as the Roadrunners of '69.

Fresh ideas, fantastic spirit,
A fountain of energy flows from the Freshman Class.
We have quickly fallen into and invaded
Every facet of Lee life.
From what has been done this year,
One can fully expect us to be the Greatest, the Freshmen of '70.

The rise and fall of the Freshman Class.

"You'd better listen because I'm your President."

Thus the Freshmen plot for their Sophomore year.

STUDENT LIFE

MARDI
GRAS
1967

The air filled with excitement as Homecoming approached.
 The halls decorated, waiting for the festivity to come.
 A flaming bonfire, burning, blazing with hope.
 Inside the Follies, a fiasco of fun and frolic.
 On Friday, the game, the Halftime—the lovely court,
     the floats, the Seniors' float.
 Saturday the dance, then poof!
 It's over.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

This September a new girl with a wide smile joined our school. Ligia Aguilar, from San Jose, Costa Rica, has been our AFS exchange student. Known to us as "Lee," she has been enjoying her stay in America. Teen-agers, she finds, are the same everywhere.

Adjusting quickly to school life, Lee soon became active in various clubs, including International Relations, Tri-Hi-Y, and Keyettes. She has also spoken before various clubs and school assemblies.

Lee has made many contributions to our life and everyone will feel a loss when she returns home to study marine biology.

IT'S ACADEMIC TEAM

L. to R.: Mr. Rohaley, G. Levine, Mrs. Mellion (Advisor), R. Morin, P. Olson, Mr. McGarry.

Taped Jan 7, played Feb. 17,
George Levine, Pete Olson, Rick Morin,
Coolidge, Stoneridge, and our great school,
Questions and answers thrown back and forth.

First round behind, 10 points,
Second round, 2nd place,
Grab bag, free for all,
Lee and Stoneridge, even.

Final Scores of competition,
Stoneridge - 285, Coolidge - 150,
LEE - 245 plus $100 scholarship.

AWARDS

This year the Optimist Club of Springfield presented Darcy Douglas and Rusty Edwards awards for outstanding service to the school. Sharon Hosaflook won the DAR award and Don Majeske won the SAR award for honor and citizenship in school and in the community. Congratulations to these outstanding seniors!

D. A. R. AND S. A. R

Sharon Hosaflook, Donald Majeske

OPTIMISTS

Darcy Douglas, Rusty Edwards

NATIONAL MERIT SEMIFINALISTS

L. to R.: N. Cherwek, M. Graft, R. Carterette, B. Wellington.

KEY CLUB SEC'Y - HIST. OF CAPITAL DISTRICT

This year Rick Morin served as Secretary-Historian of the Capital District of Key Club International, a district including all of the Key Clubs of Virginia, Maryland, D.C., and Delaware. As an officer, Rick attended all district board meetings. He also kept records of all the activities of the District, and judged the scrapbook competition at the annual Convention. Rick was the second boy from Lee to serve as a district officer.

ASSEMBLIES

Pep rallies, choral concerts, AFS,
 Cheers, music and speakers sound off at assemblies.
 Four lovely girls speaking from far-off lands, teenagers the same all over.
 Ten enthusiastic girls leading their school in spirit, classes fighting for the pep stick.
 The sounds and the silence echoes in the gym.

Helen Keller
 Destiny:
 Darkness and silence
 Reaching out for life
 Annie Sullivan
 Mission:
 To teach darkness to see and understand
 Captain and Mrs. Keller
 Symbols:
 Belief in a miracle
 To hope against hope
 Time—never ending, frustrating
 A breakthrough:
 Life stirs in the dark
 The Miracle Worker
 Production of the Lee Theater

The house lights dim
The footlights come up
Another production from Lee's Thespian Troupe

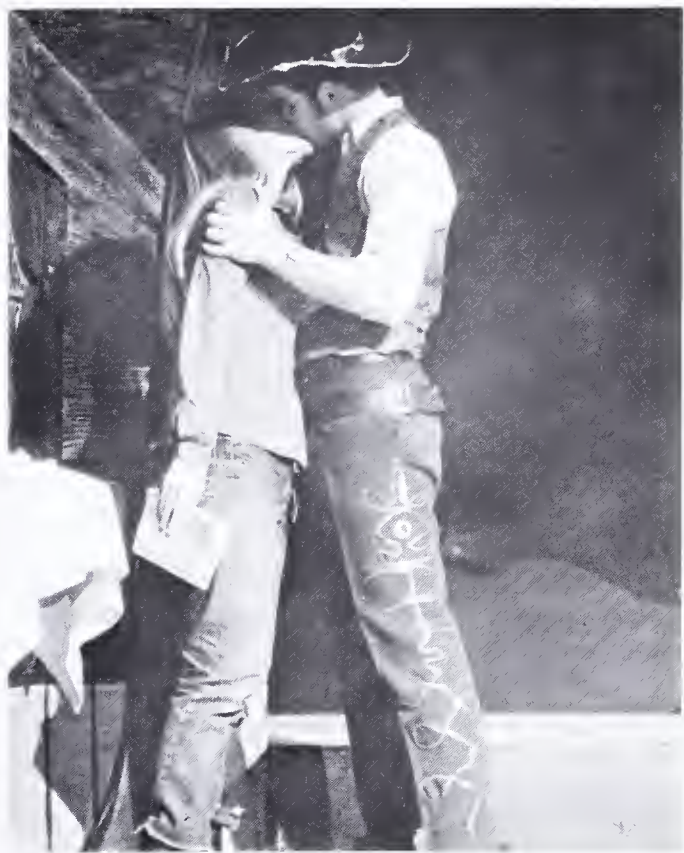

Whether a trilogy of One Act Plays
"Dark Lady of the Sonnets"
the lover of William Shakespeare vs.
Queen Elizabeth
"The Man Who Died at 12:00"
or thought he did!

"Women in Council"
plotting to overthrow the Greek government
Or a medley of show tunes including
"Bosom Buddies" from "Mame"
Or even a modern interpretation of
"Spoon River Anthology"

All present, an artistic culmination—insight, talent, make-up, sets, and Hard Work

Comedy and tragedy presented their foes.
 Comedy with a homespun touch
 The story of a
     Sharp-shooting
     Sharp-looking girl who gets
 Her man by not being able to shoot.
 Presented by the Senior Class
 The revival of an old custom abandoned for four years:

Annie Get Your Gun

Tragedy with an intellectual appeal
 A family's strong points taken together
 To represent perfection
 The entry in this year's drama competitions
 Presented by the defending champs
 Lee's Thespians:

Mourning Becomes Electra

MISS LEE DANCE

Girls in lace and frills, and sure on the arm of their trusting dates.
Dancing the latest steps on the floor Awaiting the awaited announcement of the Queen.

The time has come, the envelope opened,
the names announced one by one:
Carol, Christy, Gail, Becky—
And last, but not least by any means
Miss Lee—Mary Ann Stuckmeyer.

STUDENTS

First Quarter:

The Lancer is our protector; we shall not lose.
He maketh the teachers suffer, he leadeth the students to victory.
He restoreth their hope, they sinketh a basket.

Second Quarter:

Though they are high scorers we fear no evil
for we have faith
The clock and the referees frighten us.

Third Quarter:

Thou preparest six foul shots in their favor
Thou maketh our tennis shoes slip
Their points runneth over.

Fourth Quarter:

Surely goodness and mercy will follow the next rebound
And we will score at least one point!

Afterward:

The students shall dwell in the house of defeat
until next year.

DANCES

Dim lights, the shuffling of feet,
the band playing low.
Dreamy moods and dreamy music—
The song changes, the tempo livens
Then the speakers blare and the dances swing!

(Chaperones sit in a corner yawning, "When can I go home and take the cotton out of my ears?")

A pause . . .

As the band stops to rest,
Students giggle or talk.
The dance is over, and the band is gone.

It's late and your date must be home.

You sigh as you drive home, but then you think,

"At least this won't be the last one!"

OUR FUTURE LEADERS

"I'll figure this out yet!"

But the book says this way.

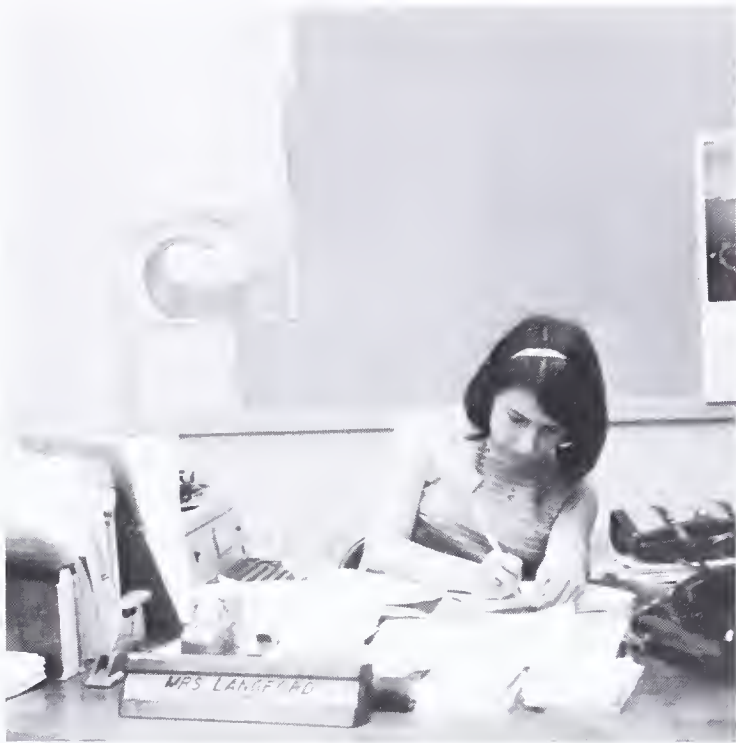

If I could just see those numbers . . .

We'll tell them that; they won't know the difference.

If I don't hurry, the poor kid won't ever get into college!

What? Never heard of it!!

February 7th, an ordinary school day, but . . .
 That's not Mr. Piper checking the busses, and
 Who are those strange people in the office?
 Seniors teaching classes, acting as principals, guidance counselors??
 Great idea for the faculty, but the Seniors are nervous . . .
 What do I say, do I hand out K.P., what if they ask me a question?
 3:25 . . . tired, but happy, the Seniors gladly gave the teachers back their jobs.

Was I that dumb then???

Substitute for a substitute???

Uncle Wiggley

And what did Mrs. Elvey say then??

Quick Draw McGraw.

LIFE OF THE LANCERS

Do you think he noticed me?

Hey! Who's scratching my head??

It's a new kind of crossword puzzle.

Chain of fools

Honest, I share a locker and the bottom half is hers.

Mary had a little lamb.

Don't come any closer or I'll jump.

I used Ultra Brite this morning and look where it got me.

Well, just tell the President I'm busy.

ACADEMICS

MR. PARRISH

Robert E. Lee High School opened its doors in the fall of 1958. This is our tenth year—a decade of progress. Our students entered their classrooms while the sounds of hammers and saws echoed in the background. We have come a long way since that warm September day in 1958. During those early days our school was nothing more than a building and many individual teachers and students. Through the years we have developed into a large suburban high school with a broad curriculum, capable faculty and an unusually fine student body. Robert E. Lee High School graduates are generally prepared for colleges and universities all over the world and Lee alumni are enrolled in such institutions not only in this country but around the world.

Let us hope our next ten years will be even more eventful.

William C. Parrish
Principal

MR. PIPER

Mr. Piper has been Lee's Assistant Principal for Administration for ten years now, since the school has been opened. Over the years, his duties have ranged from handling school reports and registration, to supervising bus transportation, to enforcing discipline. In this tenth anniversary of our school, Mr. Piper is to be commended on the fine work he has performed.

GENERAL NORELL

A familiar face in the halls of Lee, General Norell can be found doing a wide variety of jobs. He orders books and needed teaching materials, obtains substitute teachers, and often he will take a class when no substitute teachers can be found. Whether reading morning announcements or sitting in on a class, General Norell is very much a part of Lee's life.

what happened in 1819.
watch films or listen to records.
congregate and whisper the latest gossip.
find a good book.
catch up on Dick
Tracy.
A place for the . . .
students.

Mrs. James

SCHOOL STORE

Mrs. Saunders

Coins and bills,
Pencils and pens,
Ledgers and adding machines.
We should thank Mrs. Sanders
For managing the school books
And still finding time
To help the student with his needs.

JANITORIAL STAFF

L. to R.: Meloin Mullins, A.P. Settle, Lewis McDaniels.

Opening doors, unjamming lockers,
The janitors play a vital role.
Who else could find the needed table,
fix the heat, or repair the lights?
Who helps the students—clumsy and forgetful, always willing and helpful?
Who, but the Lee High janitors.

ALPHA HI-Y

Brave were the men of Beowulf's time,
Fighting their way on the Follie's stage
Winning third place for their strenuous efforts.
A drive for trading stamps for toys for children, helped to add to Christmas spirit.
The little adopted Indian boy must find things rather exciting with forty-six big brothers, and A lucky senior boy was chosen to receive the benevolent funds of Alpha's scholarship.

EPSILON HI-Y

Once again Epsilon proved itself superior in the field of entertainment. They came, victorious, from the follies with first prize for their ingenious production, "Little Red Riding Gore."

Involved in various fund raising projects, Epsilon has had a profitable third year.

THETA SIGMA PHI TRI-HI-Y

New ideas added to Theta Sigma Phi's success this year:
 Blue velvet lines the trophy case by the new gym
 An American Indian orphan has forty new sisters
 A wild new kind of auction was held in February
 A sister club has been born at Marshall High School
 Old traditions prevailed too:
 Blue and yellow mums sold at Homecoming
 Fruit-cake for faculty members at Christmas, and Treat-filled Christmas stockings for area children

MATH HONOR SOCIETY

$$\sin^2 x + \cos^2 x =$$

The confusing world of mathematics
Known and explored by these outstanding students.

Not only knowing, but competitive,
These able minds clash with other minds from other schools
weekly, not weakly,

And also talk of computers and non-euclidean geometry and such.

For them, mathematics is FUN!

It starts in June, staffs are chosen, then quietly awaits the bustle of September. A world of creativity, initiative, hard work, and long hours, soft red pencils and layout papers, after school and late on Saturdays. Putting together, piece by piece, a complete record of the past year—football games, dances, clubs, rivalries—all are recorded here. The finished product made with pride, and sweat and sometimes blood is given to you, the student body of Robert E. Lee for the tenth time.

The purpose of the club.

CHESS CLUB

L. to R.: S. Gross, R. Seeker, J. McEneaney, D. Weathers, P. Lanaghan, M. Deppe, T. Grissom.

Think!
A game of concentration
A skillful game
A mental exercise
Members of Chess Club
are pawns
Pawn moves two
Knight moves three
Queen takes rook
The members enjoy the sound of Checkmate

Fourth period bell rings
Charge! To the cars!
School is over. Good
News
Wait! Time for work
Typists, messengers,
clerks, to offices
of all kinds everywhere.
Work, Work, Work
Thought . . . what about homework
Oh well, it will get done.
Work, Work, Work,
Hurrah! Quitting time —
home.
Tomorrow — school,
work.

ASSISTANTS

L. to R.: J. Dragotta, N. Smiley, K. Custer, D. Brown.

IBM ASSISTANTS

Endless reams of paper floating through the halls of Lee
Carried endless miles by myriads of assistants-
Guidance, Office, IBM, and Store.
Anticipation, jubilation, freedom as a counselor's pass enters the room
Suspense, worry, conscience pricked. Why this office pass?-
Haircut or did they catch me skipping?
But also with mimeographs
check ins - check outs
Or living with the Computer cards without number—punch, sort file Sitting on the steps waiting for Mrs. Saunders and the endless flow of students exchanging money for supplies or issuing books or running errands
A helping hand to the administration of a school.

GUIDANCE ASSISTANTS

L. to R.: G. Summers, C. Beauregard, W. Moore, L. Aguilar, E. Medding, K. Haines, L. Schwartz, J. Farris, P. Ramsay, C. Smith, Y. Merrill, G. Levine.

STORE HELPERS

L. to R.: T. Taylor, C. Oler, S. Gomez, D. Edwards.

In books, out books
 Fines, card catalogue, errands-
 Band-aids, solace for an endless line of sick hypochondriacs and those who like class
 Washing bottles, mixing chemicals, playing wizard to a credulous underclassman—
 Checking showers, leading calistenics, pumping up balls
 Assistants found for intents of all types—Library, Clinic, Lab, and Gym

LIBRARY AIDES

L. to R.: T. Barry, B. Russo, C. Nobre, F. Hood, S. Rittenhouse, S. Studley, M. Shackley, M. Butler, B. Malloy, G. Anderson, M. Albaugh, B. Brownold.

Reach for my cake again and I'll smack you!

I'm not letting Teddy go to Alaska!

Twinkle, twinkle, little star, Keyette Pres. is what I are.

President of what club?

AUTOGRAPHS

I'm really going places pardner.

Someday I want to be president.

When I grow up I want to marry a tall, dark, handsome government teacher.

I'll never be fat because I eat D-Zerta.

Are you sure that Mrs. Elvey won't be in 5th period?

On my way back from Ebbits, I braked and made a hard left, but couldn't miss those guardrails.

Still hitting the bottle, eh Sherry?

Someday I'm going to be a giant among women.

Aren't I a smart little devil?

AUTOGRAPHS

I was only number two, so I'll try harder!

No, Howard!

Why not, Nancy?

Queen for a day.
